First, head to Guerneville. You can either take Hwy 116 from Cotati through Sebastopol, or River Road on the north side of Santa Rosa.

From the intersection of Hwy 116 and River Road in Guerneville (the stop light at the north side of the Russian River bridge):

Drive West (towards the coast) through Guerneville on River Road/Hwy 116 (they become the same).

In about 4 miles, you'll come to the stop sign in Monte Rio. Stay to the right on Hwy 116.

About 3 miles from Monte Rio, you'll see a green highway sign that says "Cazadero" pointing right. Turn Right onto Cazadero Hwy.

You'll come to the town of Cazadero in about 6 miles. Just drive through town.

The road forks at a stop sign about 0.2 beyond white church at the the north end of town. Take the Right Fork, King Ridge Road (there should be a sign that says "UCCR Camp Cazadero" with an arrow pointing up King Ridge Road).

In about half a mile, you'll come to a "T" in the road. A yellow and black highway sign points right (as does another "UCCR Camp Cazadero" sign). Follow the arrow and Turn Right (still King Ridge Road).

Continue on King Ridge Road about 3.9 miles to the turn-off to Camp Cazadero (there should be a green "UCCR Camp Cazadero" sign pointing to the left. Turn Left onto the gravel road.

Drive about 2 miles up to Camp Cazadero!
