Position: Youth Ministry Intern
Status: Part Time; 5–8 hours/week
Pay: $20/hour
Exemption: Non-Exempt
Supervisor: Associate Minister

The Youth Ministry program at DCC is looking for someone who has some experience with and is well suited to working with teenagers who would like to serve as a youth ministry intern with us this fall and next spring.

The position could be as few as 5 hours and up to 8 hours a week. The individual would work directly with the Associate Pastor to implement the program we work together with the other youth intern to establish. Both interns would be primarily responsible for youth group planning and implementation from December to March while our Senior Pastor is away on sabbatical.

The position would require travelling to Danville to be with our youth group when they meet, which is most Sunday nights from 5–7pm. There may also be a couple of weekend retreats or day trips in the mix as well. The rest of the work generally could be handled remotely and through virtual meetings.

Our current intern is male-identified and will be working with our young people through the end of the year and possibly through the spring. We would love to find either someone female-identified who could—particularly but not exclusively—hold space with our young people who are female-identified or someone who is trans/gender non-binary/genderqueer. This person would work alongside the present intern and continue working with the program in the event that his internship ends.
